Get in the Savings Game with DFCU during National Credit Union Youth Week

To recognize the young people of our community, Downey Federal Credit Union is promoting National Credit Union Youth Week during from April 19-23, 2010. Open an account for your child and start saving for the future! You can open a Kirby Kangaroo[®] Club account for children ages birth through 12 years old with a $5.00 deposit, and get an extra $5.00 from the credit union. Or, open a CU Succeed[®] account for children ages 12-18 with a $25.00 deposit and receive an extra $5.00 from the credit union. The extra $5.00 deposit from the credit union is only available during the week of April 19-23, 2010.

During the months of April and May, DFCU is sponsoring a painting contest for elementary school children. Parents can pick up painting contest entry forms at three places: 1) at the credit union in late April around National Credit Union Youth Week, 2) at the Downey St. Faire on May 1, or 3) at Kids Day in Furman Park on May 8. Each child can enter only once. There will be one student winner from each grade level (kindergarten – grade 5), and each winner will receive $50.00

As an added bonus, DFCU will sponsor an essay contest for children ages 12 – 18 attending school in Downey. Middle school students (grades 6-8) and high school students (grades 9-12) are invited to submit an essay “Why Saving Money is Important”. The essay should be 100 words or less, and contain the student’s name, school, and grade level. Students can mail in the essay to Essay Contest, Attn: Marketing Department, Downey Federal Credit Union, P.O. Box 4639, 8237 Third St., Downey, CA 90241. Or students can drop off their essay at the credit union in an envelope labeled “Essay Contest”, Attn: Marketing Department. All entries should be submitted by April 30, 2010. There will be a $50.00 prize for one student from each grade level, and winners will be announced by May 21, 2010.

“Get in the Savings Game” and reap the benefits of saving money at DFCU.
